Day 2: Xian tour

Meals: Breakfast at hotel

After breakfasts, please meet the English speaking guide and driver at the hotel lobby. After one hour's drive from the city center, you will arrive at the Terracotta Warriors Museum. Discovered accidentally in 1974, the repairs and excavations still continue in the three pits, where will marvel at more than 7000 life-sized sculptures of the ancient army, including both gray-haired veterans and young soldiers, with multiple poses and individualized facial features. There is also a circular-screen short film introducing its historical background and how it was discovered.

Next, head to Huaqing Palace, it is a historical site located near the city of Xi'an in China. It is renowned for its hot springs and its association with ancient Chinese history and culture. The palace was a favorite retreat for many Chinese emperors, including the Tang Dynasty's Emperor Xuanzong and his beloved concubine Yang Guifei.

Meals: Breakfast at hotel

Your first stop would be the Ancient City Wall, an embodiment of China's historical grandeur that encapsulates millennia of cultural treasures. This walled city, dating back to the Ming Dynasty, unfolds an immersive journey through time. Visitors can marvel at the preserved architecture, explore vibrant markets, and savor local delicacies.

Then, continue your journey at the charming Yongxingfang Gourmet Street, an architectural marvel echoing the ancient Ming and Qing Dynasties. Here, discover a culinary haven where families prepare long-lost, handcrafted delicacies right before your eyes. Each vendor unveils their culinary secrets, infusing the street with an authentic atmosphere, and offering a unique insight into the art of traditional Chinese food preparation.

In the afternoon, stroll along the Shuyuanmen Cultural Street, home to the renowned ancient Guanzhong Academy. Today, it teems with stalls offering cultural goods and souvenirs, creating a vibrant marketplace. Enjoy some leisurely free time to explore the rich offerings of this historical street.

After your visit, head to Big Wild Goose Pagoda Square. Upon arriving at Big Wild Goose Pagoda Square, take in the panoramic view of the iconic pagoda in the distance. The square is a hub of activity, surrounded by beautiful greenery and cultural landmarks. You might be fortunate enough to catch the Music Fountain Show on the North Square of Big Wild Goose Pagoda. This spectacular display combines water, light, and music, creating a mesmerizing experience.

In the late afternoon, immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Grand Tang Dynasty Ever-bright City. This cultural and entertainment complex offers a unique blend of history and modernity. As you walk through the city, you'll encounter recreations of Tang Dynasty architecture, bustling markets, and lively street performances. Explore the various attractions, perhaps stopping by traditional tea houses or souvenir shops along the way. The city is designed to transport you back in time, allowing you to experience the rich heritage of the Tang Dynasty.

After the leisurely exploration, wind down your day by being escorted back to your hotel.

Day 4: Xian tour
Meals: Breakfast at hotel

Start your today's itinerary with a visit to Xi'an Museum which is located in the southwest of the Jianfu Temple, Xi'an Museum was opened to the public on the World Museum's Day, May 18th, 2007. It is a three-storied building, with an underground floor unseen from the outside.

Next, we are going to drive to Small Wild Goose Pagoda, which is a great destination to settle your nerves due to its tranquil and peaceful environment. If you're lucky, you can catch up with such an interesting scene that groups of middle-aged and elderly people are practicing Tai Chi.

After lunch, you will explore Xingqing Palace Park. It had been called the “Mansion of Five Princes” where the brothers of Crown Prince Li Longji lived. After Li Longji ascended to the throne and became Emperor Xuanzong, his brothers presented the mansion to him in July, 714. In September 714, the mansion started to be transformed to the Xingqing Palace. Later, Emperor Xuanzong moved to the palace to live with his beloved imperial concubine Yang Yuhuan in 728. After the An Lushan Rebellion, the Xingqing Palace lost the position as a political center and became the place where retired emperors lived.

Journey to the Great Mosque, a significant religious site for the city's Muslim community of over 60,000. This unique mosque seamlessly blends Islamic and Chinese architectural elements, creating a distinctive atmosphere.

Then, walk to the Bell Tower & Drum Tower Square. Admire the impressive exteriors of these iconic structures, marveling at their architectural grandeur. Capture the essence of ancient Chinese timekeeping as you gaze upon the Bell Tower and Drum Tower, steeped in history and cultural significance.

Next, walk to visit the most famous food street – the Muslim Quarter. Immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere filled with local snacks and souvenirs. Delight in a diverse range of flavors, from traditional delights to unique dishes. Experience the rich cultural diversity as you stroll through this bustling area, where aromatic scents and bustling activity create a captivating culinary and cultural adventure.
At last, you will be escorted back to the hotel.
